Summary of reasons for decision:

The computer moving image file promotes and supports the exploitation of children persons for sexual purposes and is therefore deemed to be objectionable under s3(2)(a) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993. It is an explicit record of a young child being sexually abused. The publication normalises and encourages a sexual interest in children, and is intended for the sexual arousal and gratification of people with a prurient interest in children. It also promotes and supports sexual violence and extreme cruelty. The classification of this publication interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention and is a reasonable limitation on the freedom of expression. The classification reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect its young and vulnerable members from sexual exploitation.
